

Anti-Slavery Policy

What have we done?

Among other things:

- The INX Supplier Code of Conduct Agreement expressly prohibits suppliers from, among other conduct: use of any forced or slave labour; engaging in or supporting, directly or indirectly (including through use of subcontractors), human trafficking; directly (or indirectly through the use of subcontractors) any illegal or improper child labour. The INX Supplier Code of Conduct Agreement requires suppliers to certify, after due enquiry, their compliance.
- Pursuant to the INX Supplier Transparency Statement, INX: conducts risks assessments to identify potential likelihood of potential human trafficking and slavery in the supply chain; has confirmed its supply chain risk to be low; reserves the right to conduct third party supplier audits for compliance; requires suppliers to report any illegal or improper conduct and corrective measures taken; engaged in training of the INX procurement team that addresses the identification, awareness and mitigation of risks concerning human trafficking and slavery in the supply chain.

Aims of this policy

This policy applies to INX International Ink Co. and its subsidiaries, including INX International UK Limited.

This policy supports our commitment to limiting the risk of modern slavery occurring within our own business or infiltrating our supply chains or any other business relationship.

The policy applies to all persons working for or on our behalf in any capacity, including employees, directors, officers, agency workers, contractors, consultants, and any other third-party representative.

We expect all who have or seek to have a business relationship with the company to familiarise themselves with this policy and to act at all times in a way that is consistent with its values.

We will only do business with organisations who fully comply with this policy or those who are taking verifiable steps towards compliance.

This policy will be used to underpin and inform any statement on slavery and human trafficking that we are required to produce further to the transparency in supply chain requirements of Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (MSA). This Policy supplements the INX Supplier Code of Conduct Agreement and Supplier Transparency Statement and other steps with respect to INX International Ink Co.'s compliance with the California Transparency in Supply Chains Act.

Anti-Slavery Policy

What do we mean by modern slavery?

Modern slavery can take many forms. It is a complex and multi-faceted problem. The MSA covers four key criminal activities:

Slavery: where ownership is exercised over an individual.

Servitude: involves the obligation to provide service imposed by coercion.

Forced and compulsory labour: all work or service, not voluntarily performed, which is obtained from an individual under the threat of force or penalty.

Human trafficking: involves arranging or facilitating the travel of another with a view to exploiting them.

All forms of modern slavery have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for commercial or personal gain and amount to a violation of an individual's fundamental human rights.

Tackling modern slavery requires us all to play a part and remain vigilant to the risk in all aspect of our business and business relationships.

How we seek to embed our anti-slavery policy in practice

To underpin our policy commitments, we shall continue to implement the following measures:

- We will conduct risk assessments to determine which parts of our own business and which of our supply chains are most at risk from modern slavery so we can focus our efforts on those areas most 'at risk.'
- Where appropriate, as informed by our risk assessment, we will engage directly with suppliers in respect of our anti-slavery policy in order to gain a proper understanding of the measures they have in place to ensure that modern slavery is not occurring within their own businesses and supply chains, and, where appropriate, agree how such measures should be enhanced.
- Our contractual documentation will incorporate specific prohibition against slavery or servitude, the use of forced, compulsory or trafficked labour and the use of child labour in line with this policy. We also make provision for our contracted suppliers to hold their own suppliers to the same standard. We also reserve the right to terminate any contractual arrangement if there is breach of this policy.
